

Retroreflektometer ZRS 6060

ZEHNTNER ZRS 6060

- retroreflektometer for determination of night visibility of traffic signs, safety garments and other reflective materials with measurement of three different observation angles at the same time
- LED illumination system and with a 3.5" high resolution colour touchscreen with adjustable display inclination for excellent visibility under all light conditions also in bright sunlight touchscreen with adjustable display inclination for excellent visibility under all light conditions also in bright sunlight

- Innovative options to customize the reflectometer to personal requirements: integrated

5-megapixel camera, WAAS GPS-unit, holster, handles and many more

- For all kinds of retroreflective materials and colours with automatic colour indication
- Continuously updated average value; each single measurement is stored additionally

